MEMBER STATUS

(Our member support is happy to provide further information regarding our special membership and nonprofit partner membership)
The BVDW offers the following types of memberships (Section 5 No. 3 of the bylaws). The membership rate is assessed pursuant to the dues schedule according to the sales volume or the order volume of the member (see the separate sales report).

Regular member

Companies and educational institutions with the intention to generate profit that operate within the digital economy with at least one area of business or that offer training and continuing education that at least in parts qualifies for professional work in the digital economy. This also includes clients of such companies.

Special member (startup)

Companies with the intention to generate profit that operate within the digital economy with at least one area of business and that have been doing so for a maximum of four years at the time of application. Special membership is only possible one time and in general limited to 24 months. The membership fee amounts to 50% of the regular membership rate, depending on the sales category. (Classification in the attached sales report is required, see above, as well as an excerpt from the commercial register).

Nonprofit member

Educational institutions without the intention to generate profit that offer training and continuing education that at least in parts qualifies for professional work in the digital economy.

Minimum membership fee in the amount of 630 EUR

Higher membership fee on a voluntary basis of EUR _____

Educational institutions under public law (only universities/universities of applied science), without obligation to contribute

Segment assignment (Only one assignment is possible)

Please assign your company to a segment of the digital economy according to your business model. The individual segments together form the entire value chain of the digital economy. This serves the necessary membership statistics and does not influence your membership.

Advertisers	Shop owners	Agencies	Technology
Marketing	Content/Publishers	Consulting/financing	Education

Member of an expert group (multiple selections are possible)

In principle, all formats of the association are available for participation to the members without any restrictions. The following closed expert groups however have certain requirements for the acceptance of members or their own bylaws. Our BVDW member support is happy to disclose details. Please check here in case your company/organization would like to become a member of one of the following expert groups:

Expert group online media agencies (Fachkreis Online-Mediaagenturen, FOMA) in the BVDW

Circle of Online Marketers (Online-Vermarkterkreis, OVK) in the BVDW

Expert group sales activation agencies (Fachkreis Sales Activation Agencies, SAA) in the BVDW (formerly POSMA e.V.)
